Dear Prospective Member,

The Neotropical Ornithological Society, or Sociedad de Ornitología Neotropical, is an ornithological non-profit organization, with its principal objective the study and conservation of Neotropical birds and their habitats, including both breeding and non-breeding areas. It was founded in 1987 by Dr Mario A. Ramos Olmos. NOS is a member of the Ornithological Council.

The Society produces the journal Neotropical Ornithology, which publishes papers in Spanish, English and Portuguese. It organizes the Neotropical Ornithological Congress (next in Peru in 2011) and the Francois Vuilleumier Fund for research on Neotropical birds.

Please consider becoming a member for 2011!
